CLEVELAND DELEGATES RETURNED WITH INSPIRATION

McDowell County has every reason to be happy, hopeful and lullularious over the good news brought back to this county by the enthusiastic representatives who attended the National Convention in Cleveland.

Every one who attended has returned with renewed zeal and enthusiasm. They tell us that there is nothing to expect or hope for but Republican victory this fall. They tell us there never was or has ever been such optimism for victory in the nomination of Landon for President and Knox for Vice President. Democrats themselves are discouraged as never before. They themselves are talking about the newly nominated ticket being so strong and so harmoniously selected giving and bringing satisfaction to everybody. Hon. C. C. Hale, who is one of the most observant readers of political conditions, conservative to the corps says if the same spirit and inspiration remains good, there will be Republican Victory.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL DAILY HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Dora Sammers of this city has the sympathy of her many friends in the hasty report of the serious illness of her mother in Roanoke City, Virginia. At once she caught a car and hurried to Roanoke where she might see her mother alive.

TO SEE SISTER'S REMAINS
Judge G. L. Counts of Welch was suddenly called to his home in Virginia to be at the funeral services of his sister who recently passed into the mysterious beyond.

HON. C. C. HALE
Unfortunate yet not surprising news these days of anything, reached the Hon. C. C. Hale of Welch to the effect that his mother had sustained a painful injury by a fall at her home in Alexandria, Virginia. The hope of her many and his host of friends is that her injury may not be fatal.

POLITICAL DOTS AND DASHES

(By S. B. Moon Jr.)

Last summer I predicted that the State and nation would go Republican this year by a tremendous majority. At that time I was laughed at and called crazy; but today of those who laughed loudest are telling me that I was right.

The swing is definitely toward the Republican party at this time and will gain momentum as the campaign goes forward. The American people have decided that it is better to maintain our present form of government which is composed of three coordinate branches than to approve the creation of a centralized Fascist government with one man wielding uncontrollable powers.

The fact that the same people who last year were critical of the Supreme court are now praising its patriotism and independence is evidence of the great change which has taken place in the opinions of our citizens.

As one of my friends has ably said, "America has at last come to be her senses, and that means she has decided to defeat the New Deal. Democrats Perturbed"

Democrats prayed and hoped that the "Old Guard" would control the Republican convention, unite the platform, nominate one of its members for President, and organize the national Committee. Their hopes were soon blasted, for the young progressive leaders for whom the people had clamored were elevated to leadership in the convention. A young progressive was nominated for President and a Teddy Roosevelt Republican for Vice President, John Hamilton was chosen for national chairman. All of these men have the warm support of all Republicans in this country and the Democrats know that there are several million more Republicans in this nation than Democrats, hence the Democrats are greatly perturbed.

Landon will beat Roosevelt as decisively in the nation as Sharp will beat Holt in the State and the Democrats know it. They are using every thing at their command to stop the growing popularity of Landon and the decline in popularity of Mr. Roosevelt. Landon's record in Kansas makes him acceptable to citizen in walks of life. Miners in this county are Landon men for they are fed up with the reckless spending program of Roosevelt which will end in unbearable taxation. They are tired of supporting men who break their campaign promises immediately after the election. They now see that regimentation will lead to federal control of mines and federal control, or political control would be disastrous. Hunt Will Carry Free Sax McDowell county, the Free State is back in the Republican column. John Hunt will sweep the county for sheriff and with him the whole ticket will ride into power. Labor is not satisfied with the results of the recent Democratic primary and will support Hunt for Sheriff.

Republicans in this county are ready for the fight and they will invade enemy territory in the next few weeks carrying the gospel of Americanism and recovery to a distressed people.

Chairman Hatfield who is always a fighter will conduct his campaign in a clean dignified manner characteristic of Republicanism.

Since the people should be made familiar with the issues of this campaign young men and women in this county colored Republicans feel that a change should be made.

I have had several young men who are good Republicans to ask me who was the head of the Young GOP organization in the county. Wake up young Republicans and make yourselves heard.

While speaking of Organization I might also mention that a change in leadership in the colored Republican organization might be desirable.

Younger men and women who can wage an active and intelligent campaign should be selected to lead that organization in the coming campaign Being Distributed? Whoops, isn't it mentioned that fact because many fine to meet a "Bonus fellow?"

BONUS MONEY PLENTIFUL

Times are looking good around and throughout the city of Keystone. I'd say the "Bonus Money Is Now Being Distributed? Whoops, isn't it mentioned that fact because many fine to meet a "Bonus fellow?"

Great Lakes Exposition Opens Saturday, June 27

WITH bands playing, thousands of gay colored pennants whipping in the lake breeze, and with massive exhibit structures shimmering in the sunlight, countless numbers of eager spectators will pass through the towering pylon-entrances of the Great Lakes Exposition when that gigantic 150-acre fair opens its doors on Cleveland's lakefront next Saturday.

Opening day activities at the fair, which celebrates Cleveland's hundredth birthday and one hundred years of progress in the vast trade empire of the Great Lakes area, will be given over to a panorama of colorful festivities and special events. Radio broadcasts in the afternoon and evening will bring to the nation the news of the opening. At night, the huge Exposition will be a gorgeous fantasy of illumination. These lights will be turned on by the "man in the moon." As the rays of the moon flash on the "eye" of a powerful telescope, an impact of light will strike a photo-electric cell, which in turn transmits the impulse to switches controlling the lights.

For visitors to the Great Lakes Exposition there is a vast variety of free entertainment. From the huge orchestral shell, directly north of the fair's main entrance on St. Clair avenue, will come the melodious strains of concert music played by the Great Lakes symphonic orchestra of 100 pieces.

Opposite the Plaza and behind Cleveland's beautiful Public Hall, scene of the recent Republican National Convention, will be the Exposition's Radioland. Here, in the largest broadcasting studio in the world, visitors will see and hear the greatest stars and acts on the radio network.

the lake, and in the two main exhibit buildings, the Automobile Building and the Hall of Progress, visitors will find all types of free attraction, ranging all the way from sports to interesting, educational exhibits.

Following the winding roads that lead throughout the entire Exposition area, spectators will see the marvelous Court of Presidents, its sides lined with golden eagles dedicated to the presidents born in, or elected from, the Great Lakes states.

There is the Parade of the Years, a stirring pictorial drama of transportation, the beauty of the quarter-million dollar Florida State exhibit, the lure and excitement of the 40-acre amusement zone crammed and jammed with arcades, side shows, rides and marine concessions.

Further eastward and terminating the colorful Exposition Mid-way is the Streets of the World, a complete international settlement of thirty-six separate villages housing more than 165 buildings.
